Cooks Mate Thermometer w/Wireless Receiver

Take all the guesswork out of knowing when your meat on the grill or in the oven is done and cooked to perfection. This thermometer features FDA compliant stainless steel probe to take accurate readings in the oven or the grill. Giving you the ability to choose and pre-set temperatures on the digital meat thermometer to achieve desired doneness of food as Rare, Medium rare, Medium, Medium well and Well without checking temperature regularly. Featuring a backlit LCD panel of the cooking remote to allow you to instantly read cooking time, temperature, and select your meat type by way of a graphic icon. You can monitor your food from up to 60M/195-feet away; once you have programed the thermometer to the desired temperature or meat doneness, you will be alerted by a beeping sound when the desired temperature has been reached (temp -50 to 300C (-58F to 572 F). Includes two AAA batteries for receiver and two AA batteries for thermometer.
